GENERAL INFORMATION

Exhibitors should familiarize themselves with the following rules and regulations, as they will be enforced. Anyone exhibiting at the 2023 Weyburn Agricultural Society Exhibition is subject to these rules and regulations and any violation of the same will subject exhibitors to be penalized at the discretion of the committee in charge. The show committee reserves the right to decide any point not covered by the rules and regulations and to correct any error and to make any alterations to the rules, prize list, program, and schedule.

Camping

All camper parking must be registered at the show office prior to the exhibition. Space allotted on a first come basis. All camping fees must be paid in full before you are allowed to park in the camping area. Trailers will be parked at the owner's risk.

Exhibitor Parking

All vehicles must be parked in designated parking areas. Vehicles are not allowed to park around the barn area, except for unloading and loading of livestock. Vehicles are allowed on the grounds before 8:00 am and after 7:00 pm only. Any vehicle parked in a no parking area will be towed at the owner's expense.

Entries

Entry deadlines are noted under each section and must reach the show office by the date specified. Entries will not be accepted after the entry deadline. Entries must be accompanied by the applicable fees payable to the Weyburn Agricultural Society. In all cases the right is reserved to reject entirely or accept conditionally any entry. Exhibits that have been incorrectly entered will be transferred to their proper classes prior to judging. All entries must be on printed forms supplied for that purpose. No post-dated cheques will be accepted. There will be no refund of entry fees.

Mail entries to: Weyburn Agricultural Society, Box 699, Weyburn, SK. S4H 2K8.

Email entries to: weyburnagsociety@hotmail.com

Fraud

Upon discovery of fraud, deception, or dishonest practice, either in the preparation of ownership or of misrepresentation concerning exhibits which may have been affected or been intended to affect the decision of the judge, the Society will withhold the award and may prohibit such parties from exhibiting in any class.

Judging

The decision of the judge shall be final, and no protest or appeal will be considered except in cases where misrepresentation or fraud is alleged. In the absence of competition, the judge shall award only such premium as they feel the entry merits.

Protests

An exhibitor lodging a protest must make it in writing and present it to the committee chairman in charge within 12 hours following the protest. The protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be accompanied by a deposit of $25.00, which sum shall be forfeited to the Society.

Chutes

No chutes will be allowed in the barns.

Pets

Due to health and safety issues no pets are allowed on the grounds. NO DOGS will be tolerated on the exhibition grounds for ANY REASON.

Zero Tolerance Policy

Abuse of our volunteers WILL NOT be tolerated. The FAMILY that is involved will have to forfeit prize money if abuse continues. The abuse of our office and volunteers has cost us volunteers and this is no longer tolerated on ANY level.

Liability

No claim for injury to any person or property shall ever be asserted nor suit instituted or maintained against the Society, its officers, or agents, by or on behalf on any visitor or person, firm or corporation, or their agents, representatives or employees having license or privilege to exhibit in the exhibition or occupying space therein. All exhibits shall be under the control and discretion of the Weyburn Agricultural Society, but solely at the risk of the exhibitor. The Weyburn Agricultural Society will not be responsible for damage, injury, loss, or theft. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any article exhibited by him/her, and for its description as given in the entry, and shall indemnify the Weyburn Agricultural Society against legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.

Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion and other exhibits liable to occasion accidents, injury or damage to persons coming into contact with them, shall guard their exhibits and protect the public from coming in contact therewith, and every such exhibitor shall indemnify the Society from and against all claims demands, by reason of any accident or of any person being injured or suffering damage or by any reason of such exhibit not being properly guarded or the public not being protected there from.

The Society reserves the right to remove from the grounds any exhibit, animal, stand or show that may be falsely entered, or may be deemed unsuitable or objectionable, without assigning a reason.

Tampering of Livestock

Unethical fitting of cattle entered for competition is prohibited. All cattle entered for competition shall be presented in the judging ring in their natural state with no preparation other than natural feeding and fitting except for any treatment of hair, horns, and hooves. No hair or other foreign material may be artificially attached to the animal, except false switches. For this show, unethical fittings will be deemed to consist of any treatment or operation materially altering the structure or the natural confirmation of any part of the animal's body, surgical operation to exaggerate the natural conformation of the animal. Artificial coloring of hair is prohibited. Any animal which, in the opinion of the committee, has been unethically fitted shall be disqualified from the exhibition and shall forfeit the right to be awarded any prizes and the entry fee shall be forfeited.

A Farm Visit

by Betsy Franco

My class went to a farm one day,
We touched the soft, brown cow.
We saw where all the milk came from-
I understand it all now.

We stroked a chicken's feathers,
And we touched a muddy pig.
Her hairs were like a bristly brush,
Her eyes weren't very big.

We watched the goats butt heads,
And put their hooves up on the wall.
A little baby lamb was
With her mama in a stall.

We ate some carrots from the ground,
A fresh and healthy snack.
That farm was really neat-
I hope my class and I go back.
